'Be the change you want to see in the world' – Mahatma Gandhi

About the Event

Delhi Public School, Gandhinagar organized an educational tour for the students of Std.I to Dandi Kutir, Gandhinagar on 4 August, 2018. Dandi Kutir is India's largest & only museum built on the life and teachings of Mahatma Gandhi.

Objective of the Event

The main objective of this educational trip was to provide the students a small glimpse and unique opportunity to learn about the life and struggle of the father of the nation 'Mohandas Karamchand Gandhi'.

The Event and participation

The Dandi Kutir museum is housed within an edifice that resembles a mound of salt. It represents Gandhiji's powerful idea of people across lines of class, gender, age and community asserting their common right to salt. The salt march was a key element in uniting entire India during its freedom struggle. It is from this very salt march that the museum takes an inspiration from and gets its name.

The visit was a very humbling and inspiring experience for all the students and accompanying teachers. They got an opportunity to get a glimpse into Gandhiji's life and teachings. The same was beautifully portrayed with the help of audio visual medium and was an experience to remember for all. The virtues of honesty, non-violence, love and respect for the nation and fellow countrymen were a few of the key lasting impressions of the tour.
