

DELHI PUBLIC SCHOOL GANDHINAGAR

Academic Session 2024-25

Event Report

Title: Ganesh Chaturthi, Hindi Diwas & Teachers' Day Celebration	Date: 05-09-2024
Venue: School Atrium	Classes: I-V

'Teaching is not just a profession. It is a divine responsibility to guide and enlighten.'

About the Event

Ganesh Chaturthi is a Hindu festival celebrated with great enthusiasm across India. It marks the birth of Lord Ganesh, the elephant-headed god of wisdom, prosperity, and good fortune.

Hindi Diwas is celebrated on September 14th every year to honour the adoption of Hindi as one of the official languages of India. The day commemorates the significance of Hindi in unifying the diverse cultures of India.

Teacher's Day is celebrated on September 5th in India to honour the contributions of teachers in shaping the future of students. The day marks the birth anniversary of Dr. Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan, a revered teacher and the second President of India.

The Objectives of the Event

- To educate students about the festival that encourages community bonding as people come together to celebrate, worship, and participate in cultural activities.
- To promote the use of Hindi as a means of communication and to highlight its importance as one of India's official languages.
- To make the students aware of the great scholar Dr. Sarvepalli Radhskrishnan.
- To remind the importance of education.
- To create awareness about the significance of the teachers.

The Event & Participation

India, known for its diverse traditions and rich cultural heritage, celebrates various festivals and observances that bring people together. Among these, Ganesh Chaturthi, Hindi Diwas, and Teacher's Day hold special significance. The students of the Primary Wing of Delhi Public School, Gandhinagar celebrated all these festivals with great pomp. The celebration began with a procession where Lord Ganesh was brought on the stage, played by a student from Class I, followed by a prayer. A skit depicting the importance of 'Hindi' was performed by the students of Class I and IV. Last but not the least, there was a fabulous dance presented by the students of Class IV on the occasion of Teachers' Day celebration. The Principal, Ms. Anju Singh, and the Headmaster of the Primary Wing, Mr. Rakeshkumar Bhagat, appreciated the efforts and initiatives of the students.

Glimpses of the event celebration

