On September 6, 2024, the Pre-primary kids at Delhi Public School Gandhinagar celebrated "Ganesh Chaturthi" with great fervor and enthusiasm. The day marks the birthday of Lord Ganesha, the god of wealth and knowledge, who is also referred to as "Vignaharta," the remover of obstacles. Pre-primary students gathered in the auditorium for this important occasion, dressed in traditional attire.

The UKG-D students led a prayer and recited a shloka to begin the festivities. The children also performed a captivating dance and skit to the song "Jai Ho, Jai Ho Shankara," which enthralled the audience. To seek the blessings of knowledge, the students worshipped the idol by performing aarti and offering modaks and laddoos. They also shared these sweets with their teachers and friends.

The children participated in various activities, such as fingerprinting and bead pasting, to create bright and colorful mementos of Lord Ganesha. To seek Lord Ganesha's blessings, the students chanted, "Ganapati Bappa Morya, Mangal Murti Morya, Agle Baras Tu Jaldi Aa," and "Ek, Do, Teen, Char, Ganpati Ki Jay Jaykar."
