Event Report

Title: Basant Panchami Celebration	Date: 1.2.25
Venue: Auditorium	Class: Pre- Primary

Dedicated to goddess Saraswati, Basant Panchami marks the arrival of the spring season in India. Saraswati is the goddess of knowledge, music, learning, and wisdom. It is believed that without her the world will be shrouded in ignorance, as she represents enlightenment.

A special assembly on Basant Panchami was conducted by the youngest students of Delhi Public School Gandhinagar, i.e., by the Nursery students on February 1, 2025. The students and teachers were attired in the vibrant hues of yellow. The assembly commenced with the green welcome of the Principal and a token of love made by the class teachers of Nursery, and the rendition of हे शारदे माँ prayer. The young orators gave a speech in which they explained the significance of the festival, the arrival of the spring season, and the different ways the festival is celebrated across the country. The assembly featured a lively dance, rhyme recitation, a skit, and the Aarti of Goddess Saraswati performed by the Principal and teachers. The Principal then addressed the gathering, blessing the young learners. Souvenirs were distributed, and the celebration concluded with the tiny tots joyfully showering flowers and offering sweets to seek the blessings of Goddess Saraswati. It was a vibrant and heartfelt event filled with enthusiasm and devotion.
