Event Report

Title: Graduation Ceremony UKG	Date: 18.02.25
Venue: Auditorium	Class: UKG

The Pre-primary wing of Delhi Public School Gandhinagar celebrated the Graduation Ceremony for the students of UKG for the academic session 2024-25 on February 18, 2025, in the school auditorium. The event marked a significant milestone in the lives of young learners as they completed their foundational stage of education and prepared to step into primary school. The ceremony commenced with a warm welcome of Principal Ma'am Ms. Anju Singh and Pre-primary Incharge Ms. Neeti Jain, who highlighted the importance of early education in shaping a child's future. Proud parents and teachers were present to encourage and support the graduates. The principal delivered an inspiring speech, appreciating the hard work of students, teachers, and parents.

The young ones of LKG showcased their talents through dance, making the event lively and entertaining. Our Pre-primary Incharge Ms. Neeti Jain also shared a heartfelt message by showering blessings, recalling memorable moments, and encouraging students to continue learning with curiosity and joy. The young graduates, dressed in adorable caps and gowns, were beaming with excitement as they entered the hall. All children were called onto the stage to receive their graduation certificate from the principal ma'am, accompanied by applause from the audience. Our parents [Name] delivered an emotional speech, expressing gratitude to the school for nurturing their children's early education. The event concluded by expressing gratitude to the parents, staff, and organizers for making the event a success. After the formal program, families enjoyed a small celebration with photo sessions and refreshments. The Pre-primary graduation ceremony was a memorable event filled with joy and pride. It marked a significant moment in the students' academic journey, leaving lasting memories for everyone involved.
