Story on Save Tigers

This story is about two tigers named Laura and Sungha. Both tigers are mischievous, wild, confident, adventurous, and ferocious. Both the cubs felt like they would definitely rule the area when they grow old and become adults. Laura and Sungha both used to play in the jungle. Both of them loved their parents and their parents took care of them. The mother and father would catch their prey and everyone would divide the food. Both tiger cubs were living a content life with their parents in the lap of mother nature. However, one day, things changed for the worse. One day, Laura and Sungha were playing in the forest. Their parents were nearby and keeping an eye on the cubs. Suddenly, they heard footsteps approaching. The parents understood that the human attackers and poachers had arrived to kill them. So, alert to the sound, the parents tried to protect the cubs. The father told the tigress to take Laura and Sungha from there and they started running inside the forest. However, the cubs couldn't run much fast since they were just children. So, what happened next?

The parents died protecting the cubs from hunters. Both the father and the mother ended up dying a very gruesome death from the bullets of the hunters as they were shot down. The cubs got really scared but they continued to run so that they could save their own lives. For the hunters, it was just another game that they loved to play. So, they started chasing the poor tiger cubs. While Laura was fast enough to go and hide inside a cave, Sungha got caught. Laura saw her brother being taken away by the poachers. She was extremely sad. But what could she do? If she got out of the cave to protect her brother, the hunters would have caught her as well.
