On 24th December 2024, the students of DPS Gandhinagar organized a special assembly filled with various engaging activities to honor and celebrate this joyous occasion. The assembly highlighted the spirit of Christmas, spreading messages of love, compassion, and the significance of Jesus Christ's birth.

Objectives of events

- To instill the values of kindness, compassion, and selflessness.
- To foster a sense of gratitude and appreciation for family and friends.
- To create an atmosphere of festivity and unity through cultural performances.
- To highlight the significance of Christmas traditions and their deeper meaning.
- To encourage students to spread joy and goodwill in their community.

The event and participation

On this special day, the students of Class 3E performed a heartfelt skit reenacting the historic birth of Jesus Christ and the joy He brought to His fellow beings. The skit highlighted how He guided people and remained a savior to all.

Adding to the festivities, the students of Class 1C showcased delightful dance moves, captivating everyone with their tiny, admirable performances.

The Principal of the school, Ms. Anju Singh, blessed all the students on this auspicious occasion and, as always, shared an inspiring message. She reminded everyone of the importance of selflessness and appreciating the blessings in life.
